Myron H. Moak Passes Away In Aberdeen

Myron H. Moak, 63, long time farmer of the Mansfield area, and well known in Groton and vicinity, died at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen, Tuesday night of last week. He had been admitted there after suffering a heart attack a week previous.

Funeral services were held at the Huebl Chapel in Aberdeen Friday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. A. Elmer Moe officiating. Burial was in the family lot at Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Moak was born on a farm near Scatterwood Lake, April 23, 1889. He grew to young manhood in that vicinity and farmed there for many years. On June 3, 1935, he was married to Mary Cure, at Pierre. The couple resided on his farm until 1947, at which time they moved to Aberdeen. Two years ago they returned to the farm where they have since made their home.

He was a member of the Scatterwood Community church. His parents, a brother, Homer, and a sister, Mrs. Aaron Deistler, preceded him in death.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include a son, Robert Allen, a daughter Helen Marie, and a brother Will E., all of Mansfield; a sister, Mrs. Geo. Jacobson, Minneapolis, and several nieces and nephews.
